

The Great Scroll of Isaiah (IQIs^a) - Part Two: linguistic and philological analysis

Prof. Dr. Marcello Fidanzio e Prof. Dr. Noam Mizrahi

Sigla: SBCO

Semestre primaverile

Ects: 3

Il corso si svolgerà in presenza e in lingua inglese.

Obiettivo del corso: the course focuses on the study of the Great Scroll of Isaiah with regard to the history of the Hebrew language and to philology.

Descrizione del corso: philological analysis of the text of the Great Scroll of Isaiah in comparison with the other copies of the Isaiah text found in Qumran and with the textual families of MT and LXX. Selected passages will be studied thoroughly. The analysis of variants will allow to reflect on the choices made by the scribes who worked on IQIs^a.

Modalità didattica: lectures, active participation.

Modalità di valutazione: written paper.

Bibliografia essenziale:

- E. ULRICH – P. FLINT, Qumran Cave I.II: The Isaiah Scrolls (DJD 32; Oxford, Clarendon Press, 2010);
- Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia, K. Ellinger - W. Rudolph eds. (Stuttgart: Deutsche Bibelgesellschaft, 1967-77).